

QHSE POLICY

AASJ operates providing manufacturing, repair and maintenance services of large structures in boilerworks, welding, machining and painting. The company's fundamental values are Quality, Safety, Environment, and Health, which guarantee the company's sustainability, based on the following guidelines:

- Focus on customer satisfaction, based on meeting their needs and expectations;
- Prevention of pollution, through the reduction of waste generation and conscious consumption of natural resources;
- Prevention of incidents / accidents at work and occupational diseases of its employees;
- Compliance with legal requirements and other applicable requirements (customer, suppliers and other stakeholders);
- Effective commitment to the continuous improvement of processes and results, through critical analysis

